1. This opinion contains indications relating to the following items:

- Box No. I Basis of the opinion
- Box No. II Priority
- Box No. III Non-establishment of opinion with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability
- Box No. IV Lack of unity of invention
- Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement
- Box No. VI Certain documents cited
- Box No. VII Certain defects in the international application
- Box No. VIII Certain observations on the international application

2. FURTHER ACTION

If a demand for international preliminary examination is made, this opinion will be considered to be a written opinion of the International Preliminary Examining Authority ("IPEA") except that this does not apply where the applicant chooses an Authority other than this one to be the IPEA and the chosen IPEA has notified the International Bureau under Rule 66.1bis(b) that written opinions of this International Searching Authority will not be so considered.

If this opinion is, as provided above, considered to be a written opinion of the IPEA, the applicant is invited to submit to the IPEA a written reply together, where appropriate, with amendments, before the expiration of 3 months from the date of mailing of Form PCT/ISA/220 or before the expiration of 22 months from the priority date, whichever expires later.

For further options, see Form PCT/ISA/220.

International application No.
PCT/ES2004/000560

Box No. I Basis of this opinion

1. With regard to the language, this opinion has been established on the basis of the international application in the language in which it was filed, unless otherwise indicated under this item.
 This opinion has been established on the basis of a translation from the original language into the following language _____, which is the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international search (under Rule 12.3 and 23.1(b)).
2. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, this opinion has been established on the basis of:
  - a. type of material
 a sequence listing
 table(s) related to the sequence listing
  - b. format of material
 in written format
 in computer readable form
  - c. time of filing/furnishing contained in the international application as filed.
 filed together with the international application in computer readable form.
 furnished subsequently to this Authority for the purposes of search.
3.  In addition, in the case that more than one version or copy of a sequence listing and/or table(s) relating thereto has been filed or furnished, the required statements that the information in the subsequent or additional copies is identical to that in the application as filed or does not go beyond the application as filed, as appropriate, were furnished.

The invention relates to ceramic formulations consisting of a ceramic matrix based on a mixture of oxides, modified by the addition of metals, mixtures of metals and alloys having melting points above 1100°C and grain sizes of less than 100 microns, a method of manufacturing ceramic articles with metallic effects and the use of said formulations to manufacture said ceramic articles.

Document D1 relates to a method of producing vitreous layers. The composition, which comprises at least one hydrolysable silane and at least one organosilane, is mixed with a carrier selected from the following groups: metal or non-metal oxides, metal ions, metal colloids or metals. Said mixture is applied to the substrate.

Document D2 relates to a method for producing decorations for tableware by the application of a colouring component and a decorative paint containing a glass flux. The colouring component is a molecular sieve loaded with at least one metal from the series V, Cr, Mn, Fe, Co, Ni, Cu, Zn, etc. (see claim 1). The decoration is subsequently fired in a furnace, the molecular sieve being incorporated into the glass flux.

None of the documents cited or any relevant combination thereof discloses a composition with the features of claims 1 to 14 of the present application.

Therefore, documents D1 and D2 merely reflect the prior art. The invention is therefore novel and is considered to involve an inventive step and be industrially applicable in accordance with PCT Article 33(2), (3) and (4).
